* The returns of the Census of 1851 do not distinguish the males and females in the different Counties and Unsettled Districts, but only give the total of both sexes.

† The boundaries of the County of Talbot were changed between the Censuses of 1861 and 1871. This Table shows the numbers within the old boundaries. For the population within the present boundaries, according to the Census of 1871, see Tables XXIII. and XXIV., post.

‡ The Unsettled Districts are now all subdivided into Counties. The old divisions are, however, shown in this and subsequent Tables to enable comparisons to be made between the returns of the Census of 1871 and those of the various Censuses taken before the subdivision took place.

* The boundaries of the County of Rodney have not been changed from those of the former Unsettled District or unproclaimed county of the same name. — † The boundaries of the County of Talbot have been changed since the Census of 1861 by the addition of a portion of the Unsettled District of the Loddon. — ‡ The County of Weeah is a tract of unsettled country. It is believed to have been totally uninhabited on the Census night.

NOTE.—At all Censuses prior to the Census of 1871, the Counties of Benambra, Bogong, Delatite, Moira, and about half of Wonnangatta, formed portions of the Unsettled District of the Murrumbidgee; the remaining half of Wonnangatta, together with Buln-buln, Croajingolong, Jargo, Tambo, and Tangil, formed portions of the Unsettled District of Gippsland; the counties of Bendigo, Gladstone, Gunbower, and about a third of Tachera, formed portions of the Loddon; the remainder of Tachera, together with Borung, Kara-kara, Karkaroo, Lowan, Millewa, and Weeah, formed portions of the Unsettled District of the Wimmera.

* The Migratory Population has been computed chiefly from the number of householders known to have escaped enumeration owing to their having changed their residences between the time of the schedules being deposited and the time they should have been collected, with a few additions of persons reported by the enumerators, to have been encamped in their districts on the Census night, but whom the sub-enumerators did not succeed in meeting with. No attempt has been made to form an estimate of unenumerated persons of whose existence no definite information was obtained.

NOTE.—See foot-notes to Table XXI., ante, respecting newly-formed counties and alterations in county boundaries since the former Census.

NOTE.—The numbers for 1871, 1861, and 1871 are given exclusive of Chinese and Aborigines, in order to compare with the previous Censuses, when there were either no Chinese, or scarcely any, in the colony, and when the Aborigines were not enumerated. The numbers of unspecified ages are distributed pro rata among those at the various specified age periods. In cases where a decrease has taken place, the minus sign (—) is prefixed to the numerical and centesimal decrease.
